

Translation of ROC (Taiwan) Patent Publication No. 470901

Claim 1

A system for tracking logistics and information of goods comprises a parent company for supplying goods, affiliates for supplying raw materials, agents for marketing goods, and distributors, wherein customers interact with them through the Internet, the customers utilizing the bar codes of the goods to enter the Internet for inquiring the relationships of various logistics and information processes, thereby providing a transparent process management, a complete process control, and a security mechanism for preventing manufacture/sale process from an accident risk, and allowing the customers to directly join the retro-tracking to know the exact processes of the goods so as to obtain a customer environment of safety and reliable selection for use.

BEST AVAILABLE COPY